Today's Second Offering: Farel Reformed Theological Seminary
Farel Reformed Theological Seminary is located in Quebec, Canada. Farel's vision is to provide pastoral, spiritual and missional care for future and current leaders (pastors, pastoral counselors, deacons) of new and existing churches and Christians who want to better integrate their faith into the work and public realms in which they serve. They provide reformed seminary training and coaching, publish reformed books in the French language via Éditions La Rochelle and create online, interactive learning modules based on Reformed doctrine and practice intended to edify all believers. You can find further information on this cause at farel.net.

Next Week's Second Offering: Word & Deed
Word & Deed has a focus on empowering each needy person to eventually provide for themselves in recognition of the dignity they have as God's image bearers, having been made both to work and to worship. They have an insistence on the Gospel being central to each ongoing project. A careful use of field trips, interviews, correspondence, and application procedures to ensure that potential partners (churches and missions) and projects make responsible use of the funds provided and are motivated by a love for God and their neighbor. They focus on developing indigenous leadership so that their capacity to monitor and administer their own projects increases. wordanddeed.org

Church Family

We remember our shut-ins and those unable to worship with us because of age, illness, or other struggles. May our God be gracious and grant to them His presence and comfort. May our desire be to pray, write, call, or visit our brothers and sisters who are unable to join with us in corporate worship.

Please remember Herman and Geri Klaassen's daughter Alison in prayer. She has a large mass in her abdomen and other health concerns which she is waiting to get more information on. She has been referred for surgery but is waiting to hear back. Alison is married with children, so do please also remember her husband and children during this time of waiting.

We also pray for the continued recovery of our sister, Joanna Hofsink. In addition, we give thanks that our sister Yu Chan has recovered enough to return home as well. We give thanks to the Lord for allowing these sisters to return home so quickly and pray they will be granted all they need, both physically and spiritually.

If you've never come before, but are interested in this study, we would love to have you. Please let Marcus Nagtegaal know if you are planning to attend so we can provide enough food. Word & Deed Prayer Update - South Sudan
South Sudan gained independence in 2011 but soon after was engulfed in civil war, forcing many in rural areas to flee to Internally Displaced Persons (IDP) camps established by the United Nations. Even today, many remain in these camps. Word & Deed partnered with the Sudanese Reformed Church to help families return to their villages. So far 160 of 200 people being supported by this program have been repatriated. Due to a rise in unrest and volatility in many regions, the program has been put on hold. Please pray that the families who have moved back to their villages will reintegrate well and that the last 40 people who are waiting to return to their homes will have the opportunity to do so soon.

Rev. Jared Pine is a church planter in Mexicali, Mexico.

1. Praise God for our safe arrival in Mexicali, that we are settling in as a family to new rhythms, and that we have been able to begin hosting Bible studies in our home.
2. Pray that the handful of regular attenders at our Bible studies so far would progress into the core group of our church plant, and that new people would continue to join.
3. Pray that God would provide us with an adequate public meeting space in a central location for those who have desired to join us but not been able so far.
